Leak mystery stalls trial

Gaming czars quarrel over PH casino

An American gaming firm, which has been granted a license to operate a casino in the Philippines, is facing a legal battle with the Philippine Gaming Commission (PGC) over the alleged leak of confidential information. The PGC is accusing the firm of leaking confidential information to a local gaming firm, which is now operating a casino in the Philippines. The PGC is also accusing the firm of leaking confidential information to a local gaming firm, which is now operating a casino in the Philippines.

Amlac linked to exposé of Corona bank accounts

By Carlo C. Quinsion and Christian T. Inguma

PERSONNEL of the Anti-Money Laundering Council (AMLC) may have leaked photographs of the signature cards of Chief Justice Renato Corona to a local newspaper, according to a report from a source familiar with the AMLC.

The source, who is a former AMLC official, said that the AMLC had received a request from a local newspaper to provide information on the signature cards of Chief Justice Corona. The source said that the AMLC had agreed to provide the information, but that the information was leaked to the newspaper before it was officially released.

Max spends most of his day attending meetings. Even working 11 and then there's a change in the mode, they work time he has to spend on his computer system catching up on work, his family and his spouse.

Michael is just as busy as Max. Yet his schedule is relaxed. He works more efficiently. He has time for his family—helping his wife with their homework and watching their school movies. He even plays golf with his friends.

THE DIFFERENCE?

Michael uses Globe Business Collaboration Solutions like Audio Conferencing, Web Conferencing and Telepresence to get things done. He takes advantage of the latest mobile technology and the Internet to enable him to conduct and attend meetings without having to be physically there.

GLOBE COLLABORATION SOLUTIONS: MEET ANYTIME, ANYWHERE.

Audio Conferencing

Globe Business Audio Conferencing takes ordinary teleconferencing beyond the limitations of the conference room. You can join the conference using your mobile phone. This service rides on a global platform with toll free access to more than 40 countries with up to 200 participants able to join in!

Web Conferencing

Using the power of the Internet, Globe Business Web Conferencing enables business travelers to join meetings right from their desktop or laptop computers, iPhones, iPads, Android devices and BlackBerry smartphones or other Wi-Fi or 3G-enabled devices.

Web Conferencing combines desktop sharing through a web browser, enabling faster distribution of information. That means users are able to transfer large amounts of data easily and securely.

Telepresence

Globe Business Telepresence is the most advanced conferencing solution that can closely replicate an "in-person" meeting experience. Especially built telepresence rooms transmit life-sized, high-definition images of participants from various locations. You can use any of the more than 1,100 telepresence rooms located in more than 75 countries and territories worldwide. The experience is so realistic, you'd believe everyone is actually there.

Max and Michael show us two different ways by which we can do business. Take the more efficient, innovative way. Speed up decision-making and time-to-market. Stay ahead of competition. Choose Globe Business Collaboration Solutions.

C Guard saves 9 Viet fishers off Palawan

BY JIMMY LEE
A C-130 Hercules transport plane landed on a beach in Palawan, Philippines, on Monday, Feb. 20, to rescue nine Vietnamese fishermen who had been stranded at sea for nearly a week.

The rescue mission was part of a larger effort by the U.S. Coast Guard to help Vietnamese fishermen who are often caught in the illegal fishing industry. The fishermen are often lured to the Philippines by promises of high wages, but they are often exploited and their boats are confiscated.

3 dead in Kidapawan city jail attack

KIDAPAWAN — Three people were killed and 10 others injured in a jail attack in Kidapawan city, Mindanao, on Monday. The attack, which took place at the Kidapawan City Jail, was the deadliest in the region since 2009. The attackers, who were armed with knives and firearms, broke into the jail and killed three inmates and a guard. The other 10 inmates were injured. The police are currently searching for the attackers and have set up a checkpoint at the jail entrance. The attack has caused a state of panic among the residents of Kidapawan city.

Army officer in 'no go' zone with MILF

MANILA — A senior army officer has been ordered to stay out of a "no go" zone in the Philippines, where he has been working with the MILF. The officer, who is a high-ranking official in the army, has been ordered to stay out of the zone because of the risk of being targeted by the MILF. The MILF has been active in the region and has been responsible for several attacks. The army has been working to bring the MILF back to the negotiating table, but the MILF has refused to do so. The "no go" zone is a highly sensitive area and the army has been ordered to maintain a low profile in the region.

Of aging and tummies

By Linda K. Armstrong

More than 100 million Americans are over the age of 50, and the number is growing. As the population ages, so do the concerns about aging. One of the most common concerns is the aging of the body, particularly the stomach. As we age, our stomachs can become less efficient at digesting food, leading to a variety of symptoms including bloating, gas, and constipation. While these symptoms can be uncomfortable, they are usually not a sign of a serious problem. However, if you experience these symptoms frequently, it's worth talking to your doctor to rule out any underlying conditions.

One of the most common causes of these symptoms is a condition called "small intestine bacterial overgrowth" (SIBO). This occurs when there is an abnormal increase in the number of bacteria in the small intestine. This can lead to a variety of symptoms, including bloating, gas, and constipation. SIBO can be caused by a variety of factors, including a history of abdominal surgery, a weakened immune system, and a diet that is high in simple carbohydrates. If you suspect you have SIBO, your doctor may recommend a breath test to confirm the diagnosis. Treatment typically involves antibiotics to reduce the number of bacteria in the small intestine.

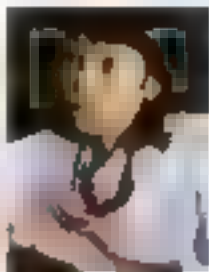

Another common cause of these symptoms is a condition called "lactose intolerance." This occurs when the body is unable to digest lactose, a sugar found in milk and dairy products. This can lead to a variety of symptoms, including bloating, gas, and constipation. Lactose intolerance is caused by a deficiency of the enzyme lactase, which is responsible for breaking down lactose into glucose and galactose. If you suspect you have lactose intolerance, your doctor may recommend a breath test to confirm the diagnosis. Treatment typically involves avoiding dairy products or taking a lactase supplement.

While these symptoms can be uncomfortable, they are usually not a sign of a serious problem. However, if you experience these symptoms frequently, it's worth talking to your doctor to rule out any underlying conditions. In the meantime, there are several things you can do to help manage these symptoms. For example, you can try eating smaller, more frequent meals, avoiding fatty and spicy foods, and drinking plenty of water. You can also try taking probiotics, which are bacteria that can help improve the balance of the gut microbiome.

You're only as good as your gut

By Linda K. Armstrong

The gut is often referred to as the "second brain" because of its complex network of nerves and its ability to communicate with the brain. In fact, the gut and the brain are connected by a two-way communication system called the "gut-brain axis." This system allows the gut to send signals to the brain, and the brain to send signals to the gut. This communication is essential for a variety of functions, including digestion, immune function, and mood regulation. When the gut-brain axis is disrupted, it can lead to a variety of health problems, including digestive disorders, autoimmune diseases, and mental health issues.

One of the most common ways to disrupt the gut-brain axis is through diet. A diet that is high in processed foods, sugar, and fat can lead to an imbalance in the gut microbiome, which can in turn lead to a variety of health problems. On the other hand, a diet that is rich in fiber, healthy fats, and antioxidants can help support a healthy gut microbiome and improve the function of the gut-brain axis. In addition to diet, stress is another major factor that can disrupt the gut-brain axis. Chronic stress can lead to an increase in the production of stress hormones, which can in turn lead to an imbalance in the gut microbiome.

THE REAL STORY

Laurice Guillen turns in luminous portrayal

It's the trademark of great acting—not the ability to impressively bend down and utter one "go home!"

As the film's first scene unfolds, Guillen is in a room with a man who is about to die. She is the only woman in the room, and she is the only one who can save him.

Defending his Grammy speech

BY MICHAEL O'NEILL
 After his Grammy acceptance speech, Kanye West's words were met with a mix of confusion and outrage. In an attempt to clarify his remarks, West released a statement on his website. "I was just trying to say that I was the one who brought hip-hop to the world," he wrote. "I was just trying to say that I was the one who brought hip-hop to the world."
